

Szechenyis Honored at Breakfast

HENGELMULLERS
HOSTS TODAY AT BREAKFAST

The Ambassador from Austro-Hungary and Baroness Hengelmuller were hosts at a breakfast in the embassy today in honor of their visiting countrymen, Count and Countess Dionys Szechenyi, who are being greatly feted during their stay in the National Capital.

This evening Count and Countess Szechenyi will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderbilt. Last night they dined with Mrs. Donald Cameron in her home on Lafayette Square.

Indiana Club Entertains.

A brilliant reception was given at the Arlington last evening by the Indiana Society of Washington in honor of Vice President Fairbanks and the Indiana Congressional delegation.

About 500 members of the society and their friends were present. The president of the society, A. L. Lawshe, headed the line. Beside him stood the Vice President and the State delegation of Senators and Representatives, all of whom were accompanied by their wives, with the exception of Senator Hemenway, who had with him his daughter, Miss Lena Hemenway.

Col. Daniel Randall, sergeant-at-arms of the Senate, and Mrs. John P. McGraw made the introductions. Assisting was a special committee composed of Mrs. Jerry Matthews, Miss Bertha F. Wolf, Miss Cora Curry, Miss Alice M. Sanger, and Miss Jesse Springer.

The hall room was beautifully decorated with American flags, palms, and American Beauty Roses, and the Indiana State escutcheon at one end. At the conclusion of the program and after the hall had been cleared for dancing, there was a grand promenade lead by Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks. Mrs. Fairbanks wore a gown of black spangled net and chantilly over white satin. Mrs. Timmons, daughter of the Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks, wore a white satin empire gown. Mrs. Beveridge, wife of Senator Beveridge, wore a handsome dress of ashen of roses chiffon trimmed with pearl embroidery on the bodice. Miss Lena Hemenway wore a gown of pink satin and carried pink roses.

The following program was capably rendered: Overture, Marine Band Orchestra; contralto solo, "Remember," Hawley; Miss Emma Rouchen; recitation, selected, Mrs. E. J. Fouts; violin solo, "Elegie," Wieniawski; Mrs. Rose Maxwell Dickey; baritone solo, "Song of the Turkey," de Koven, A. H. Delbert; "Aute solo, "Good Night," Mrs. Poppe, William de Luca; soprano solo, "Nymphs and Fauns," Bamberg, Miss Edith Stowell; recitation, selected, Mrs. E. J. Fouts; trio, "The Mariners," Handegger, Miss Stowell, Mr. Delbert, and Mr. Jones; Mrs. Thomas Jones, pianist.

At the conclusion of the last number the guests passed into the ante-room and parlors, where refreshments were served. Music was furnished by the Marine Band Orchestra.

Richardson's Theater Party.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson were hosts at a theater party last evening, followed by a supper at the New Willard.

Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Loeb, Jr., Mrs. George Post Wheeler, and John Barrett. Mrs. Wheeler, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Richardson for several days, will return to New York today.

Mrs. Robert Patterson, who has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter in their estate in Russia, and who is now in Europe, will arrive in Washington next week. Her handsome residence in Mount Circle, which has been closed during the season, is being placed in readiness for her home coming.

Representative and Mrs. Lowden entertained at dinner last evening in their residence in Calumet place.

Miss Katherine Cameron, of New York, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont. Mr. and Mrs. Belmont were hosts at dinner last evening.

Vanderbilts Dinner Hosts.

The Austrian Ambassador and Baroness Hengelmuller were the guests of honor at a dinner last evening when Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderbilt were hosts. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt will entertain tonight for Count and Countess Szechenyi.

Franklin Bell, General and Mrs. Sanger, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Clover, General and Mrs. Fitzhugh, Mr. and Mrs. Burrows, Williams, Mrs. Randolph Clark, Mrs. Julian James, Senator Bacon, and Admiral O'Neill.

Gen. and Mrs. John A. Johnson entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Governor Magoon.

Mrs. Graham Entertains.

Mrs. Andrew B. Graham entertained at luncheon yesterday at the New Willard in honor of Mrs. John Childress. The table decorations were spring flowers and ferns.

Among the guests invited to meet Mrs. Childress were Mrs. Charlotte Dailey, Mrs. Beale R. Howard, Mrs. Burrows, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Burnham, Mrs. Sidney C. Neale, Mrs. Charles N. Fowler, and Mrs. Hawley.

Mrs. Kittredge Haskins, wife of Representative Haskins of Vermont, will receive at the Connecticut this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. She will be assisted by Mrs. Stafford, Mrs. Robb, and other Vermont ladies.

Benefit Tea.

The Ladies' Hospital Chapter, of St. Andrew's Church, will give a tea and musical in the parish hall of the church February 14, from 4 to 5 o'clock, for the benefit of the room which the chapter supports at the Eye, Ear, and Throat Hospital. The members of the chapter have arranged quite a pleasant program for this evening which will include many of the best-known soloists of the city. The tickets of admission include both the music and the refreshments.

Miss Ruth Hall entertained a few of her friends Saturday evening in honor of her house guest, Miss Calhoun, of South Carolina. Those present were Miss Bernice Calhoun, Miss Rosa Schultze, Miss Gretchen Schultze, Miss Marie Higgins, Miss Susan Higgins, Miss Ruth Hall, and Miss Margarette Hall, and Ralph O'Brien, Fairfax Oyster, Henry Joyner, Bernard Anthony, Isaac Guisenheim, Joseph Purg, and Harry Doolittle.

Mrs. Patterson Receives.

Mrs. A. W. Patterson, of the Rochambeau, received Friday from 4 to 5 o'clock at a beautifully appointed tea. Those assisting Mrs. Patterson were Mrs. Langley, Mrs. Schultz, Miss Richards, and Miss Heald.
